True Anabaptists refuted the term they did not RE-baptise because they viewed infant baptism as invalid. They saw believer baptism as the only valid scriptural baptism. He then took the Anabaptist message to Biel, Berne and the Catholic province of Tyrol. Felix Manz: A citizen of Zurich and a Hebrew scholar. The Anabaptists frequently met in his mother's house. In order to understand the diverse nature of Anabaptism, we must first look at the wider influences occurring at the time. From this we will be able to perceive the unique place the Anabaptists held in the Reformation, but also see their failings. THE SPIRITUALISTS Spirit over the Word. Key Teachings. Holiness is an essential characteristic of the nature of God and is a central doctrine to The Wesleyan Church and many other denominations. Yet this doctrine has decayed in recent decades and is in danger of being lost as a central focus of Wesleyan Theology. The third volume in the Wesleyan Theological Perspectives series, the Holiness Volume offers a fresh look at this e Holiness is an essential characteristic of the nature of God and is a central doctrine to The Wesleyan Church and many other denominations.
